ROCABELLA SPA

A HOLISTIC WELLNESS EXPERIENCE
UNWIND - REST - RECOVER

Welcome to your home away from home in the Cyclades!

Whether you are looking for authentic experiences or a unique retreat, don't look any further, because you've found your place to be! At Rocabella Mykonos, our goal has always been to appeal to genuine travellers, those wanderlust seeking who dislike anything pretentious and want to unwind at places where they can be nothing more than themselves.

We've created this Cycladic haven centred around the warmth and sincerity that forms the basis of Greek hospitality as well as the simplicity that characterises the Cycladic architecture.

Character is what makes a hotel fall short or stand out; its ability to introduce you to a world of authenticity, which will carry you away in its rhythms and make you feel at home. At the end of the day, Rocabella is the microcosm that we ourselves look for while travelling.

This homely atmosphere is what we as a team strive for so that you'll enjoy your experience here to the fullest. After all, from the rooms to the restaurant, from the pool to the spa, and from the concept store to each and every corner, Rocabella has a story to tell, and you are a part of it.

Enjoy your stay!

NEAREST AIRPORT

JMK - Mykonos Airport

Perched on the stunning island of Mykonos, Rocabella's story is one of timeless charm and authentic kindness to guests. It started back in 2000, but its family roots go even further back to the 1980s when its sister hotel flourished in Santorini island.

The name Rocabella, which means "beautiful stone" in Italian, honors the lovely stones that was originally part of its setting.

Right from the start, Rocabella has been all about genuine warmth and making guests feel at home. Today, under the care of the Kalfopoulos family's second generation, the hotel got a big makeover in 2018. Roy Kalfopoulou, always dreamed of making Rocabella a high-end 5* boutique hotel, and she made it happen by joining the prestigious Design Hotels group.

But through all the changes, one thing hasn't changed: the hotel's heartwarming hospitality.

The owner's motto for Rocabella is "sustainability first" which means they're always looking for ways to improve things while keeping the environment in mind. With a dedicated team behind it, Rocabella continues to be a place where people feel special and cared for.

What differentiates us from a Mykonos Villa? We offer 24/7 security to guests & we are not located remotely as most villas of the island. Also, we offer breakfast included in the rate & guests have access to our gym, spa (villas guests have the privilege to be offered a massage session & our VIP package) & the wellness shala.

Here's to the next chapter of this amazing retreat, where the tradition of kindness lives on, and dreams keep coming true!

TASTE THE MEDITERRANEAN

Immerse yourself in an experience that celebrates Greece's rich culinary heritage, where each dish is a testament to tradition revitalized with a modern twist and served with exceptional hospitality!

We are proud to emphasize our love for Greece by showcasing a curated selection of Greek wines (wine list is curated by our in house sommeliers) and beers, each choice perfectly harmonizes with our food menu. And do not overlook our latest addition - our new cocktail list, where we've carefully curated a selection of Greek-inspired cocktails. Discover your favorite one, and start your dinner by the poolside savoring its flavors as you bask in the warmth of the sun and the essence of the Mediterranean!

ARCHITECTURAL VISIONARY

Eleftherios Ambatzis, the mastermind behind Rocabella Mykonos' new architectural era, introduces himself & while unveiling the hotel's new profile.

Architecture in its built form is... the art of construction. Once architecture is applied on the Cycladic landscape, it has to adapt and respond to this unique environment, traditions and history, in order to envelop and shelter human activity.

The aim of the reformation of Rocabella hotel in Mykonos was... to create a series of communal or private areas, lookout or planted spaces, swimming or relaxation zones, in which human activity can shelter, protected from the sun and wind. After all, the locals refer to Mykonos as 'the island of the winds' due to the strong winds that blow all year round, so it is crucially important that the design addresses wisely the elements of sun and wind.

The main concept of the design approach was... to attempt to recreate the image of rock formations scattered around the island, as well as the protective atmosphere of a cave. The labyrinthine structure of the existing complex formed an ideal stepping stone for this idea to flourish. Organic cement surfaces surround spaces, accompanied by natural elements such as marble, wood and fabrics to complete the composition. The actual design of spaces follows simple, primal forms, so that all focus is oriented towards the sea and Mykonos town, as well as the islands of Delos and Rhenia right in front.

ONCE THE GUEST EXPERIENCES THESE CONDITIONS AND IMMERSSES HIMSELF INTO THIS PARTICULAR SETTING, CAN EVENTUALLY INTROSPECT AND BEGIN A SELF-REFLECTION JOURNEY.

The villa, following the overall design principle of the hotel, is... a tranquil space, a hideout where someone can enjoy fully the amenities of the hotel, while feel completely secluded. Its open plan living area by the private pool facing Mykonos town, is in a harmonious juxtaposition with the cave-like bedrooms.

Rocabella Mykonos is... a quiet retreat where guests can tone down, focus on the surrounding setting, the perpetual moment of the sea, the changing colors of the sun, the sound of the wind, the reflections on the water and the brightness of the white washed walls. Once the guest experiences these conditions and immerses himself into this particular setting, can eventually introspect and begin a self-reflection journey.

The hotel complex was first built in 2009... and several renovations and transformations have occurred to this day. Each intervention aimed to solve different issues of the operation of the settlement at the time.

This ongoing four-year total reformation of the hotel... started as an attempt to rethink the initial concept of the place and the reason of its uniqueness. It has been a challenging adventure so far to bring together all the different faces of hotel, result of years of different construction works, needs and approaches, and turn them into one holistic unified entity. We hope that when this total transformation project is completed, Rocabella Mykonos will form a refuge from the hustle and bustle of the Myconian summer lifestyle and set the tone for a more serene and authentic Cycladic experience.

MYKONOS UNCOVERED

Join us on an unforgettable journey as we uncover the essence of Mykonos, a paradise waiting to be explored. Have a look through the must-visits before you start your exploration!

CHORA ESSENTIALS MUST DO EXPERIENCES

Mykonos' Chora enthralls with its labyrinth alleys and characteristic Cycladic architecture. The famous and 24/7 vibrant Matoyianni, Chora's main road, is the meeting point of both locals and visitors, and most likely yours as well!

MUST – SEE STOPS IN CHORA:

- Gialos, with its cafes and passers-by from early in the morning that flood in for its flea market, has managed to preserve its traditional character and charm with its picturesqueness.
- The much-photographed and picture-postcard beauty of Little Venice with its characteristic sea captain's houses, the magnificent view of the Mills and the sought-after cocktail bars.
- The mills, one of the most iconic landmarks of the island, close to Little Venice, attract like magnets the eyes and the cameras! They are white, cylindrical buildings, that stand proudly in the Kastro district, and once served local needs, but also supplied the passing ships.

- Paraportiani Church is one of the most impressive churches you will ever see in your life and of course a classic stop for taking unique photos. It is located in the Kastro district and impresses with its unique architecture that comprises a cluster of 5 churches built on 2 levels!

- The Three Wells are found in the heart of Chora, where Astra Bar is located, and used to be a gathering place for beautiful damsels who came here to fill their jugs with water or meet the love of their life!

- Meletopoulos' Garden, featuring the summer cinema Cine Manto, is one of the most beautiful secrets of Chora, just a few minutes from Little Venice. Here, amidst trees and lush green, you can also enjoy a coffee break at the cafe.

- Countless alleys, each one with its own beauty. Some of these captivating streets include Kalogera, Panachrantou, Enoplion Dynameon, Delou and many more.
